

food webs

This piece symbolises the Gwydir's ecosystem. Pictured throughout the piece is plankton, tadpoles, krill, various bugs and vegetation, frogs, snakes, fish, dragonflies and an array of birds. The yiraay (meaning sun in Gamilaroi language) is pictured in the artwork. Yiraay is our source of energy and provides the nutrients which are essential to maintain our systems growth and life.