

This piece symbolises the movement of gali (meaning water in Gamilaroi language). The Gwydir Wetlands are an abundant source of gali, providing nutrients to Gunimaa (meaning Mother Earth in Gamilaroi language) and attracting seasonal food and vegetation for our people. Tones of brown and black are used throughout the artwork to capture the beauty and essence of gali.