

vegetation

This artwork symbolises the different types of vegetation found around the Gwydir, including various grasses, bulrushes, marsh clubrush, lignum bush and phragmites. These plants and grasses are extremely important to our people and are used for food, weaving and various other resources.