

waterbirds

Throughout this artwork are some of the different birds found at the Gwydir wetlands. The birds represented include pelicans, brolgas, ducks, and spoonbills. Birds are indicators of seasons, essential food and play a significant role in maintaining the environment. Birds are extremely spiritual to our people and are often mimicked in dance. Their feathers are used in ceremony and celebration and are also resourcefully utilised to provide warmth.